

I would like to comment on how important it is that satellite radio be able to broadcast instant traffic & weather. I drive a truck for a living and use satellite radio for one of my sources of info. It is a great resource and I feel that if they would not be able to broadcast traffic and weather then they would lose an edge in an open a free market system. Remember this, competition is always a good thing for us consumers who fuel the economy.